

This is Holy Week – Holy Saturday

There was a kind follower of Jesus, a rich man called Joseph of Arimathea, who went to Pilate and asked for Jesus's body. Pilate agreed. Joseph wrapped the body in linen cloths and laid it in a tomb, which had been carved out of the rock.

Then he asked for a great stone rolled across the entrance to the tomb. The women who loved Jesus followed and watched.

The next day Pilate ordered his soldiers to guard the tomb for three days. Some of those who had wanted Jesus killed were worried that the disciples would secretly steal Jesus's body and pretend that he was alive.

This was because they remembered that Jesus had said, "After three days I will rise again."
